

Marty Bergen

speaking on...

Squeezes & End Plays Creating Trump Tricks How to Play a Part Score

Dates here

Marty uses state of the art presentation techniques in 3 sessions which are pre-recorded via the internet. He will have 3 workshops each followed by a review session. Both the workshops & reviews are playing lessons. A mentor will be at each table during the review sessions!

Held in where
time

Cost here for the six lesson series or
Cost here inclusive of three of Marty's booklets on each topic
Individual session cost: Cost here

Reservations: name, phone and email here

To reserve your spot, make your check out to name here
and mail to address here

About Marty...

Marty A. Bergen (born 1948) is an American bridge player and writer. A 10-time national champion, American Contract Bridge League (ACBL) Grand Life Master, & World Bridge Federation (WBF) World International Master, he retired from active competition in 1993 to pursue his dream of becoming a bridge author. Together with his long-time bridge partner Larry Cohen, he popularized the Law of Total Tricks, Support Double, & 1NT Semi-forcing. Marty has authored 22 bridge books, two of which won the American Bridge Teachers' Association's prestigious Bridge Book of the Year award, namely Points Schmoints!: Bergen's Winning Bridge Secrets in 1996 & Declarer Play the Bergen Way in 2005; & 24 award-winning booklets on different bridge topics. He has had a column in the Master Pointers section of ACBL Bridge Bulletin since 1976 & panel member for The Bridge World's Master Solvers Club.